Commencement Speaker

Peter Eisenman

In 1980, after one career as a respected architectural teacher and writer, Peter Eisenman embarked on another career as a builder. His architectural achievements now dot the globe, and have been honored by awards in the United States, Germany and Japan.

Among his best-known buildings are the Wexner Center for the Visual Arts and Fine Arts Library at The Ohio State University, and a housing project built at Checkpoint Charlie on the Berlin Wall.

Mr. Eisenman's current buildings include a $35 million design arts center at the University of Cincinnati, a $42 million arts center at Emory University, and various projects in Germany.

He formerly taught architecture at Cambridge, Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Ohio State universities. He currently is the Irwin S. Chanin Distinguished Professor of Architecture at The Cooper Union in New York City.

Mr. Eisenman was the founder of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies, an architectural think-tank. He was the recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship, and a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts. He received architecture degrees from Cornell, Columbia and Cambridge universities.

The University Mace and Batons

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who have served as chairs of the Campus Council or the Campus Faculty. The mace is carried by the chief marshal, who is the current chair of the Campus Faculty.

Marshals' Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

Honor Stoles

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

Academic Regalia

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or dark blue—Ph.D.; light blue—Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Architecture	Blue Violet	Music	Pink
Arts and Letters	White	Nursing	Apricot
Business and Bus. Admin.	Drab	Pharmacy	Solid Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green
Engineering	Orange	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Forestry	Russett	Science	Golden Yellow
Home Economics	Maroon	Social Science	Cream
Humanities	Crimson	Social Work	Citron
Journalism	Crimson	Speech	Silvery Gray
Law	Purple	Theology	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon Yellow	Veterinary Science	Gray

The University Song

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas which should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '06, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

Alma Mater

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward
Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth,
Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—
Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth.
Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished;
Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true;
Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—
Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

The University Seal

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on the campus.

HONORARY DEGREE

Doctor of Laws
Helen Robson Walton

Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree

Helen Robson Walton

The wild success of Wal-Mart Stores Inc. can be traced in part to Helen Robson Walton of Bentonville, an early business partner and investor with her husband, the company's founder. "She, with great business insight, was the original financier of the Sam Walton vision," said Doyle Z. Williams, dean of the University of Arkansas College of Business Administration and holder of the Sam M. Walton Leadership Chair, one of two chairs established in the College by Mrs. Walton and her family.

While Sam Walton was guiding Wal-Mart to its place as the nation's largest retailer, Helen Robson Walton was building her own legacy in the fields of education, community service, religion and the arts.

At the University of Arkansas, Mrs. Walton has served on the National Advisory Board of the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences and was a major financial backer of the renovation of Old Main and the expansion of Mullins Library. Helen and Sam Walton also gave $5 million to establish the Walton Arts Center in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Walton sent two sons, Rob and Jim, to the University of Arkansas to obtain their degrees. Rob succeeded his father as chairman of Wal-Mart Stores Inc.
